

RESTRICTIONS BY STATE

CALIFORNIA

RIFLES:

The following are prohibited:

- .50 BMG caliber.
- Semi-automatic rifles with a fixed magazine that exceeds 10 rounds.
- Semi-automatic rifles with a detachable magazine.

Any AR must have a fixed magazine (bullet button) with less than a 10 round capacity to ship.

Rifles chambered in rimfire calibers (for example: .22LR) are not considered assault weapons and can have features centerfire rifles cannot (with the exception of the 10 + 1 capacity).

- Springfield M1As will be legal if “CA” is indicated in the model number (these models have a muzzle brake instead of a flash hider).
- AR stripped / complete lower receivers must be compliant (will reference Bullet Button).
- No upper receivers.

SHOTGUNS:

The following are prohibited:

- USAS-12, Striker-12, or Streetsweeper
- Semi-automatic and has one of the following features:

 - Pistol grip
 - Thumbhole stock
 - Vertical handgrip
- Shotgun Flowchart

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE (DOJ) HANDGUN ROSTER:

- The DOJ is a reference list for handguns that are compliant with California laws. If a handgun does not appear on this roster, we are unable to ship it to any FFL dealer in California.
- Handguns cannot exceed a 10 + 1 round capacity.
- Handgun Flowchart

Exceptions:

- Single-action revolvers do not appear on the DOJ list but can be sold in CA (with the exception of Derringers).
- Law enforcement officers with proper credentials on file may purchase off-roster handguns. They can also purchase non-compliant ARs as long as the firearm is being used for duty use only. Credentials need to be on file prior to shipment.

AMMUNITION MUST BE SHIPPED TO AN FFL DEALER IN THE FOLLOWING CITIES:

- Los Angeles
- Sacramento
- San Francisco

Tannerite exploding targets (Last Man Standing, H2, etc.) do not ship to California.

MARYLAND

HANDGUNS:

- New handguns must have a fired shell casing from the manufacturer.

Manufacturers that ship with a fired shell casing:

- Glock
- Walther
- Smith & Wesson
- CZ
- Dan Wesson
- Ruger
- Springfield Armory
- Canik
- Tisas
- Girsan

If the manufacturer does not ship with a fired shell casing, some FFL dealers will provide one for the customer.

This needs to be a prior agreement between the customer and dealer.

- Used guns do not require a fired shell casing.
- Cannot exceed 20 round capacity.

RIFLES:

Semi-automatic rifles cannot exceed 20 round capacity.
